We are eager to hear about the projects and ministries close to your hearts, which can benefit from the Spring Offering. Your submissions will be thoughtfully reviewed by the Spring Offering Committee, and recommendations will be made during our January meeting of the presbytery.

Let us come together in unity, demonstrating our cheerful giving, and collectively make a significant impact on God's work in our presbytery and beyond. Thank you for your faithful service, and may the Lord bless and guide your endeavors for His glory.
